A Victorian school: outside

5 POINTS

Draw the school building, then write a label for each part and draw a line to it. Use the word bank. Here are two real Victorian schools to look at.

5 POINTS

The Victorian side is filled in. Write what our school is like today, then circle same or different.

	A Victorian school	Our school today (write it here)
Writing	A slate and a slate pencil, wiped clean with a rag. Older children used a dip pen and an ink well.		same / different
The class	Up to 80 children in one room, all ages together, with one teacher helped by older pupils called monitors.		same / different
Desks	Rows of wooden desks, all facing the front and the teacher.		same / different
Lessons	The three Rs: reading, writing and reckoning (sums). Times tables chanted out loud. Sewing for girls and woodwork for boys.		same / different
Rules	Breaking a rule could mean the cane, the dunce's hat in the corner, or writing a line out hundreds of times.		same / different
The school day	From 9 in the morning until 5 in the afternoon, with dinner at home in the middle.		same / different
Doors	Separate entrances for boys, girls and infants, with the words carved over the doors.		same / different
Paying	A penny or two a week, until school became free in 1891.		same / different
